Description

Trials, sorrows, problems, everyone has them, and some have a greater share than others. Our usual reaction when a trial comes upon us is to wonder or ask “Why?” There is no such thing as good luck or bad luck for a believer, because we know that as children of God, our Father is over all that comes upon us. Can it be that we “need” such and such a trial? Peter wrote, “If need be, you have been grieved by various trials” (NKJV). This book attempts to point out a number of reasons why we might “need” the trials that the Lord allows to come upon us. Knowing His purposes in what He allows may help us to have a better attitude toward our trials, and also to receive the blessing that our Lord has in mind for us.
