Description

Coloring isn't just for kids anymore.

Combining the benefits of creative downtime with the blessings of devotion time, this coloring book features meticulous line art and Scripture verses to draw the heart and mind toward God's creative work in nature. It features forty-three illustrations with verses from the King James Version of the Bible.

Join the millions of adults who are rediscovering the joys of coloring, and do it while you meditate on—and bring color to—God's Word.
