Description

The young artist, Jack Villiers, goes to the fishing village of Runswick Bay to get away from the pressures of the city and to paint. At Runswick Bay he finds that the simple faith of the fishermen causes him to consider his own life and ambitions. By sports, storms, and dreams he is made to realize that a tremendous conflict is taking place for the control of his own soul and life. Through Christy, the young preacher of Christie's Old Organ, he finds peace and the purpose to life.
