Description

In this book, W. H. Westcott comprehensively covers the subject of the Holy Spirit. He is a divine person who currently indwells the believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. The writer traces the work of the Holy Spirit from Genesis to Revelation. He emphasizes that the distinctive feature of this dispensation is the presence of the Man Christ Jesus in the presence of God, while the Holy Spirit is on earth! The writer highlights the need for believers to be more controlled by the Holy Spirit in their daily lives so that the life of Christ may be manifest through them.
