Description

Like the gentle rain falling, the 34 letters found in Showers Upon the Grass exude a gentle spirit that quietly feeds the soul. J. G. Bellett constantly meditated with delight on the Word of God and some of his choice thoughts appear to have been inserted as little leaflets with his letters. They are included here. This book isn't aimed at challenging your intellect but rather at touching and soothing your heart with a sense of the constant nearness of a loving and faithful Lord Jesus. The colorful details of people long with the Lord remind us how much a seemingly quiet, mundane life can be constantly lived in fellowship with heaven.
