Description

In 1840, in Geneva, J.N. Darby delivered his lectures on the "Hopes of the Church of God". The teaching contained therein has never seriously been challenged from Scripture since.

The original pamphlet was entitled "The Watching Servant" or "The Coming of the Lord – that which characterizes the Christian life."

This new (1985) and enlarged edition has been completely re-typeset and contains additional material.

24 pages - Booklet - Author: J. N. Darby
