Description

It's very likely you've never gone to the DRC. But Peg has! And not only did she go there, but she lived there for many years!

In this book she'll tell you stories of her time there and lessons she learned while she was there. And since you probably haven't visited DRC, or even the continent of Africa for that matter, she'll also tell you about life in Africa—how people live, how they build houses, what they eat, those kinds of things.

But why did she live there? For many years, she was a missionary. She worked at a Christian school there and used her time to tell other people about the Lord Jesus.

This is the other important theme of this book. Peg will tell you about the Lord Jesus, too! Why is He important? What did He do for you? Do you have the answers to these questions yet?

Just open the book and let Peg take you on a journey from your home to the DRC!
