MEDITATIONS ON THE OFFERINGS

The offerings of Leviticus 1-7 are not thought important by many Christians, yet they present Christ in remarkable ways! We miss many precious things if we don't read and meditate on these few chapters! They are presented to us in a divine order—the burnt offering, the meal offering, the peace offering, and the sin (and trespass) offerings. This well-written book opens up and explains many details of these offerings, yet the author tells us there is so much more to enjoy!

Steve Labelle was born in Arundel, Quebec, in 1942. In his younger days he was a school teacher and that training has helped him speak and write with his audience carefully in mind. Thus, he explains things logically and scripturally. He has the God-given spiritual gift of a Bible teacher and uses this gift to help the Lord's people wherever he has the opportunity to present the truth of Scripture.

We believe you will be richly blessed by studying the offerings. The clear writing of this book makes these truths easier to understand by all Christians who want to learn more about the Lord Jesus.
