Description

Yellow stars! Red lightning bolts! Blue footprints . . . where are they? Spread out the magnetic discs, roll the dice, and scramble to match the picture and the color.

Make a match, grab a disc, and use its magnetic clack to build a stack. Keeping score is easy-just line up the stacks to see whose tower is tallest.

Clack!, a top-seller in more than 25 countries, is one of our favorite kids games. The magnetic discs connect with a satisfying clack!

- The magnetic discs connect with a satisfying 'clack'
- Constant action-every player plays on every turn
- Magnets are safely sealed inside of the discs
- Designed for kids to play on their own and with their families
- Special printing protects the images on the discs
