Description

Two friends were talking on religious topics. They discussed the question of punishment for sin in a future life. They settled to their own satisfaction that there was none. They decided that hell was a myth. They argued that there was no need for God or a Supreme Being since scientists say that the universe and life and man could have come into being through “natural” causes. And they agreed that even if there were a God, He would be a God of love and thus could not consign His creatures to everlasting punishment. Then a Christian, who had been a silent listener to the discussion asked: “SUPPOSE IT IS TURE AFTER ALL?” SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL that “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth” (Genesis 1:1)? When you stand before the Creator-God on the day of judgment, what reason will you offer for having given all the glory and credit for the beauties and glories of the earth and the universe to the impersonal “god” of chance and nature rather than the personal Creator-God? SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL that God must punish sin? SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL that hell is a reality? SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL that the Lord Jesus is the only Savior, and His death and resurrection proved the only means by which you can be fitted for God's presence?... SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL that the much-despised blood of Jesus is the only thing that can cleanse you from your sin? SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL? How terrible will be your doom if you “die in your sins” (john 8:24). Dear friend, flee to Christ and be saved . Be assured that IT IS TRUE, with a guarantee of “fullness of joy” and “pleasures for ever more” in God's presence (Psalms 16:11) for all who place their trust in Christ for salvation.
