New York, September 11, 2001 – Terrorists demolished the twin towers of the World Trade Center in New York City. Thousands of lives were taken in this and related attacks at the Pentagon and in Pennsylvania. Hundreds of safety personnel and common citizens risked and gave their lives to rescue others. Millions of Americans joined in prayer for the injured and families of the victims. Such a disaster not only touches our hearts, it also causes us to ask a lot of questions, such as, “Where was God in all this and why did He allow it to happen?” There are no simple answers to these questions, yet the Bible does give some in sights. In Jesus' day people were asking questions about a disaster of much smaller magnitude: Eighteen people were killed when a tower in Siloam fell on them. Some apparently were wondering if this happened because the people were guilty of some terrible sin. Here is how Jesus answered their Questions: “Think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye REPENT, ye shall all likewise perish” (Luke 13:4, 5). He was really saying to them, “THIS SHOULD BE A WAKE UP CALL!” If this terrible tragedy causes us to stop and hear His voice, then at least some good can come from it.
