Description

Two people were having a discussion on religion one day. This is how it went: "Do I have to become a Protestant to be saved?" "Not at all! I wouldn't waste my time trying to convert you to Protestantism." "But you don't believe that the Catholic Church can save, do you?" "No, I don't." "Well, I am a Roman Catholic and my friends are members of the Greek Orthodox Church. You say that neither one can save, and you are a Protestant. Don't you want us to turn Protestant also?" "No, I don't. I have never asked any Catholic to become a Protestant." "You haven't?! I don't understand. Don't you believe that Protestantism can save?" "No, I don't." "You don't! What then - ? How can one be saved?" "Neither the roman Catholic, the Greek Orthodox, or the Protestant Church can save your soul. No church can save, but the LORD JESUS CHRIST can." "JESUS!" "That's right: one is not saved by a Church, either Catholic or Protestant, but through a Person – the Lord Jesus Christ, God's only begotten Son." SOLD IN SETS OF 100
